FAQs

- Does a “grad student give-away” mean you are giving away grad students?
NO, we are giving stuff TO UCSB graduate students with a valid id. Think of it as a yard sale where everything is FREE!
- What are you giving away?
Mostly household items of high quality: furniture, kitchen stuff, table linens, water bottles, books, baskets, glassware, serving stuff, towels, bed linens. See list (and some photos) at bottom of this document.
- Do you really mean everything is FREE?
Yes, that is true! We will not accept cash, cards, checks, Venmo, or any other form of payment. Just take it!
- When and where?
Saturday, July 22nd, 10 am to 3 pm. 114 Verona Ave. in Goleta. Per Google Maps, it is 3.3 miles and an 11-minute drive from San Clemente Villages. Also accessible via MTD Bus 27.
- What if multiple people want the same item?
The first person to come gets it. If two people come at the same time, they pick a card from a deck. Highest card wins.
- Do you deliver?
Emphatically NO. You need to be able to take it the same day. Moving the items is your responsibility.
- Can I bring my family members or roommates?
Sure! Always fun to shop together.
- Why are you getting rid of all your stuff?
After many years in Santa Barbara we moved to the Middle East. Our son has been living in our house, but now has moved out and we need to get it ready for renters by emptying it.
- Why grad students?

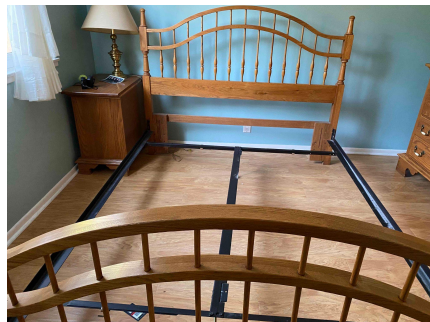

I spent 6 years as a PhD student, 30 years as a UCSB faculty member, and 8 years as a graduate dean. I know the challenge of living on a tight budget and how grad students are ready to set up households, but often don't have the resources to do so. Anything not taken on the 22nd will be given to a thrift store, but I thought we could take out the middle-man and give grad students first crack at the stuff for free.
